Camping Session #4 June 25-29

Louisiana Trooper Foundation "Making the Difference" SUMMER 2007

Camp Win-A-Friend 2007 was held in Holden, Louisiana. Campers spent five days and four nights with the men and women of the Louisiana State Police serving as counselors and mentors. The Louisiana Trooper Foundation sponsors six one week camping sessions and every child attends the camp free of charge. The campers enjoyed camp activities such as the always-popular pinewood derby car races, horseshoes, BB gun competition, tug of war, boardwalk, volleyball, baseball, swimming, flag etiquette, canoeing and leapfrog.

Tribe 2 uses their teamwork skills to complete the board walk.

Tribe 3 poses with Tigers head basketball coach, John Brady.

Campers learn the importance of wearing a seatbelt.

Campers pet a snake during a Wildlife and Fisheries presentation.

Tribe 5 takes a hike in the woods.

Left: Campers learn how to raise the flag. Right: DeMarcus Thomas of Troop A asks a question as campers look on during a demo with a bomb dog.

Demonstrations/Presentations: Campers watched demonstrations conducted by different sections of the Louisiana State Police, including K-9, SWAT, Air Support, Highway Safety, and Public Information. Other presentations were provided by the Louisiana Department of Wildlife and Fisheries, Mr. Scottie Eaves, Chaplain Dr. David Womack, LSU Basketball Coach John Brady and the Gideons.
