Camping Session #2 June 11-15

Louisiana Trooper Foundation "Making the Difference" SUMMER 2007

Camp Win-A-Friend 2007 was held in Holden, Louisiana. Campers spent five days and four nights with the men and women of the Louisiana State Police serving as counselors and mentors. The Louisiana Trooper Foundation sponsors six one week camping sessions and every child attends the camp free of charge. The campers enjoyed camp activities such as the always-popular pinewood derby car races, horseshoes, BB gun competition, tug of war, boardwalk, volleyball, baseball, swimming, flag etiquette, canoeing and leapfrog.

Grant Arnold and Kyle Shelly from Troop C show off their derby cars.

Jacob Smith from Troop C poses with the catch of the Day.

Christopher Carrington and Bryson Chaisson from Troop C canoeing.

Campers get a chance to pet the snake after the Wildlife and Fisheries demonstration.

Campers cool down after a hard day of play.

Mark George, Brett Rome, and Xavier Matthews from Troop C master the monkey bridge.

Right: Tribe 1 competes in the tug-of-war competition.

Demonstrations/Presentations: Campers watched demonstrations conducted by different sections of the Louisiana State Police, including K-9, SWAT, Air Support, Highway Safety, and Public Information. Other presentations were provided by the Louisiana Department of Wildlife and Fisheries, Mr. Scottie Eaves, Chaplain Dr. David Womack, and the Gideons.
