Camping Session #1 June 4-8

Louisiana Trooper Foundation "Making the Difference" SUMMER 2007

Camp Win-A-Friend 2007 was held in Holden, Louisiana. Campers spent five days and four nights with the men and women of the Louisiana State Police serving as counselors and mentors. The Louisiana Trooper Foundation sponsors six one week camping sessions and every child attends the camp free of charge. The campers enjoyed camp activities such as the always-popular pinewood derby car races, horseshoes, BB gun competition, tug of war, boardwalk, volleyball, baseball, swimming, flag etiquette, canoeing and leapfrog.

Benjamin Albritton and Cody McGurk from Troop F learn how to canoe in the pond.

Eldrick Hawthorne and Dakota Roberts from Troop G sight their targets for the BB gun competition.

Tribe 5 reads the map to find the next item on their scavenger hunt.

Dekota Roberts and Tanner Lee from Troop G learn how to tie knots for the knot-tying demo.

Campers enjoy a demo by the LSP SWAT team.

A short break in between activities is enjoyed by the campers.

Left: Campers pose for a picture with the LSP helicopter. Right: Tribe 4 shows off their guideon.

Demonstrations/Presentations: Campers watched demonstrations conducted by different sections of the Louisiana State Police, including K-9, SWAT, Air Support, Highway Safety, and Public Information. Other presentations were provided by the Louisiana Department of Wildlife and Fisheries, Mr. Scottie Eaves, Chaplain Dr. David Womack, and the Gideons.
