Camping Session #5 July 9-13

Louisiana Trooper Foundation "Making the Difference" SUMMER 2007

Camp Win-A-Friend 2007 was held in Holden, Louisiana. Campers spent five days and four nights with the men and women of the Louisiana State Police serving as counselors and mentors. The Louisiana Trooper Foundation sponsors six one week camping sessions and every child attends the camp free of charge. The campers enjoyed camp activities such as horseshoes, BB gun competition, tug of war, boardwalk, volleyball, baseball, swimming, flag etiquette, scrapbooking, canoeing and leapfrog.

Ariel Landrum from Troop A works on her tribe's guidon.

Grayson Garnett from Troop C plays horseshoes.

Tabitha Beauchamp from Troop D learns how to shoot a BB gun.

Tpr. Karla Billiot from Troop B takes Amber Puerto from Troop B on a ride in the canoe.

The campers enjoyed a bomb dog demonstration given by DPS Officer Kevin Scott and his K-9, Rocky.

Maggie Tucker from Troop F and Kara Murphy from Troop E work on their flip-flops.

Right: Tribe 4 learns how to work as a team during the boardwalk competition.

Demonstrations/Presentations: Campers watched demonstrations conducted by different sections of the Louisiana State Police, including K-9, SWAT, Air Support, Highway Safety, and Public Information. Other presentations were provided by the Louisiana Department of Wildlife and Fisheries, Mr. Scottie Eaves, Chaplain Dr. David Womack and the Gideons.
