Camping Session #6 July 16-20

Louisiana Trooper Foundation "Making the Difference" SUMMER 2007

Camp Win-A-Friend 2007 was held in Holden, Louisiana. Campers spent five days and four nights with the men and women of the Louisiana State Police serving as counselors and mentors. The Louisiana Trooper Foundation sponsors six one week camping sessions and every child attends the camp free of charge. The campers enjoyed camp activities such as the always-popular pinewood derby car races, horseshoes, BB gun competition, tug of war, boardwalk, volleyball, baseball, swimming, flag etiquette, canoeing and leapfrog.

Campers learn how to tie basic knots during the knot-tying demonstration by Mr. Scottie Eaves.

Campers watch the LSP SWAT team in action.

Campers cool off in the "shower" after a long hot day.

Two campers race to beat the clock and win the canoeing competition.

Campers learn about snakes and alligators for the Wildlife & Fisheries demonstration.

Campers try to get as close to the bulls-eye as possible during the BB gun competition.

Right: Campers and counselors pose for one last picture before heading home.

Demonstrations/Presentations: Campers watched demonstrations conducted by different sections of the Louisiana State Police, including K-9 and SWAT. Other presentations were provided by the Louisiana Department of Wildlife and Fisheries, Mr. Scottie Eaves, Chaplain Dr. David Womack, and the Gideons.
